The doctrine of transubstantiation is the result of a theological dispute started in the 11th century, when Berengar of Tours denied that any material change in the elements was needed to explain the Eucharistic Presence, thereby provoking a considerable stir. Berengar's position was never diametrically opposed to that of his critics, and he was probably never excommunicated, but the ...

Faith in God is the key to pleasing God. It is right to have faith because God is reliable. Faith also releases the blessing of God. It brings God onto the scene. Many people fail to get answers to prayer because they don't have the kind of relationship with God that makes them confident that God is going to answer them.
