These legs came in super handy. We bought a new 55" Vizio television that had the legs positioned at the corners of the tv. This meant that the TV would no longer stand on our TV stand as the old TV it was replacing had a center pedestal base and the new TVs legs were too wide to stand on our old TV stand.

This is a great little stroller. It's not perfect, but considering the price, I'm tempted to give it 5 stars. Please note: I bought and paid full price for this stroller--no discounts for any reviews--so these are my observations from an over-researcher who has been shopping around for strollers for a while now and finally decided to pull pull the trigger on the Joovy Caboose Graphite.

A gimmick is a novel device or idea designed primarily to attract attention or increase appeal, often with little intrinsic value. When applied to retail marketing, it is a unique or quirky feature designed to make a product or service "stand out" from its competitors. Product gimmicks are sometimes considered mere novelties, and tangential to the product's functioning. Gimmicks are ...
