Street children are children experiencing poverty, homelessness or both, who are living on the streets of a city, town, or village. Homeless youth are often called street kids or street child; the definition of street children is contested, but many practitioners and policymakers use UNICEF's concept of boys and girls, aged under 16 years, for whom "the street" (including unoccupied ...

“What scares me most is that I may be working for the Jew's big Agenda and not even know it.” That is a profound statement, INCOG, and one that all should ponder, as any one of us could very easily fit into that category. Jews are very subtle, almost supernaturally so, and they have a keen knack for divining Aryan sensibilities.
