Breastfeeding and human milk are the normative standards for infant feeding and nutrition. Given the documented short- and long-term medical and neurodevelopmental advantages of breastfeeding, infant nutrition should be considered a public health issue and not only a lifestyle choice. The American Academy of Pediatrics reaffirms its recommendation of exclusive breastfeeding for about 6 months ...

Puritan history, as is taught in America today, usually focuses in on the Puritans during the 1600's as they were arriving in America. But to really understand the Puritans it is necessary to go back with them across the Atlantic Ocean to England. We must go back in time 100 years earlier to their origins in the England of Henry VIII.
