Murder By The Barrel A Libby Sarjeant Murder Mystery Book

A barrel murder was a method of "execution" used by early American mafiosi since the 1870s, although the earliest recorded barrel murders in New York were reported in 1895 and 1900. [3] The victims, usually Italian immigrants, would be found stuffed inside a barrel after being shot, stabbed, or strangled to death, and left on a random street corner or back alley, or shipped to a nonexistent address in another city.
